

Expert

KONKURS JEZYKOWY
DLA UCZNIÓW SZKÓŁ PONADGIMNAZJALNYCH

Przykładowe zadania konkursowe.- język angielski

Put the verbs in brackets in the correct form.

1. Nowadays, it seems everything (change)
2. Jane (break)..... her leg, so she couldn't walk.
3. Tom (work) in this office for a few years. He's got a new job now, though.
4. Look at Pam! She (win)..... the race.
5. I don't recognize Steve. He (look)..... so different in a hat.

Change the following sentences using the word provided. Do not change its form.

1. My neighbour said that my son had thrown a stone at his window. accused
.....
2. Mark is less interested in maths than in any other subject. least
.....
3. He dances like a professional. as if
.....
4. It's unlikely that he stole this car. could
.....
5. Let's go skiing after breakfast. about
.....

Mark (x) the sentences as true or false.

	True	False
1. St George is the patron saint of Scotland.
2. A shamrock is the symbol of Wales.
3. Parliament of Britain consists of the House of Representatives and the House of Lords.
4. Snowdon is Britain's highest mountain.
5. Glasgow is the largest city of Scotland.

Choose the correct answer.

1. The sooner he moves out, ... it will be for all of us.
a) the better b) better c) the best
2. Can she really be so naïve as ... his lies?
a) believe b) to believe c) believing
3. She's ... older than I thought.
a) rather b) quite c) pretty
4. He's known ... a lot of money to charities in the past.
a) to donate b) donating c) to have donated
5. I ... to stay in tonight rather than go to the cinema.
a) would rather b) prefer c) would prefer

You will hear two people being interviewed on the radio about Home Exchange holidays. Answer questions 1-7 writing T for True or F for False in the spaces provided.

1. All bills are paid by the home owner.
2. Brian asked for written references
from his exchange partners.
3. Susie met the people she exchanged with.
4. Things got broken in Susie's house.
5. The house Brian stayed in was smaller than his own.
6. Brian wasn't able to visit every place he wanted to.
7. Susie had seen a picture of her exchange partner's house.

Fill each blank with the word created from the word in capitals.

1. The country is very so travelling by road is difficult. MOUNTAIN
2. The teacher stressed the need for regular ATTEND
3. That's a lie. I'm afraid you have been LEAD
4. This skirt is too short. It needs LONG
5. He got the first prize because his story was STAND